MADHAV RAMESH

BIO

Self-motivated Business Economics student with a strong foundation in analytical thinking, leadership, and strategic problem-solving. Experienced in Model United Nations, debating, and academic competitions, with a proven ability to communicate effectively, manage teams, and perform under pressure. Seeking opportunities to apply economic reasoning and leadership skills in entrepreneurial and professional environments.

EDUCATION

High School Diploma | St. George's College

Mar 2019 – Mar 2025

- Percentage: 95%
- Stream: Commerce with Mathematics.

Extra-curricular activities

Delegate, Harvard Model United Nations

Represented the United Kingdom in the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) and won Diplomatic Commendations.

Delagate, Oxford Model United Nations

Represented Germany in the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSCW) and won the Outstanding Delegate Award.

Participant, MU20 School Of Opportunity

Competed in the MU20 Impact Challenge at Asia's Largest Career Conference. We were evaluated on the basis of our policy-forming and diplomatic skills. I was awarded The Most Impactful award.

School Prefect, St. George's College

Became the School Prefect for two consecutive years and led a total of 650 children. Was in charge of overall discipline and the smooth functioning of the school. This made me realise the importance of the right delegation of work, good communication in the chain of command and, mainly, how to be a good and effective leader.

Member, The Debating Society

Have been a part of the school's Debating Society, and have qualified to the state level. This gave me a comprehensive learning experience that enhanced my communication skills and critical thinking abilities

Lead actor and Director, St. George's College

Directed the house play "Pirates of the Caribbean" which went on to win the inter-house competition. The problems that I faced were mainly stage setup and management. The event taught me patience, attention to detail and critical thinking.

Editor and Writer

Published various articles in the school letterhead and coffee table magazine. Participated in the AISCE Zonals Creative Writing after coming 1st at the State level.
